PART ONE: BACKGROUND

Chapter One - Introduction
A. Background to the Hall investigation
B. Terms of Reference
C. Methodology and sources
D. Scheme of the Report
E. The preparation of the Report
F. Acknowledgments

Chapter Two – The Hall investigation’s approach to the Terms of Reference
A. The phrase ‘inappropriate sexual conduct’
B. The term ‘The BBC’
C. The word ‘Aware’
D. The key questions

Chapter Three – Stuart Hall
A. A short biography
B. Hall’s charitable and other good works

Chapter Four – BBC Manchester – A History

Chapter Five – BBC Manchester Regional Television News
A. The Premises
   (i) Broadcasting House, Piccadilly Gardens
   (ii) New Broadcasting House, Oxford Road
   (iii) Security
B. The Operational Structure
C. BBC Staff Perceptions of Management
PART TWO: THE ALLEGATIONS AGAINST STUART HALL

Chapter Six – Their Stories: Complainant witnesses whose evidence was the subject of counts alleging indecent assault on the first indictment to which Hall pleaded guilty on 16 April 2013 (First Term of Reference) ...............49

   Introduction ........................................................................................................49
   CH4 (1967/1968) (Count 1) ........................................................................50
   CH7 (1973) (Count 2) ....................................................................................53
   CH10 (1974) (Count 3) ..................................................................................54
   CH3 (1976/1977) (Counts 10-11) .................................................................55
   CH11 (1981) (Count 12) (incident also involving CH12 (Count 13) and CH13 (Count 14)) ...........................................................................57
   CH14 (1982) (Count 15) .............................................................................59

Chapter Seven – Their Stories: Complainant witnesses whose evidence was the subject of counts alleging rape and indecent assault on the second indictment for which Hall was tried and acquitted (save for two counts of indecent assault) in May 2014 (First and Second Terms of Reference) ...61

   Introduction ........................................................................................................61
   CH5 (1976-1978) (Counts 1-9) .....................................................................63
   CH21 (1979-1981) (Counts 12-20) .................................................................65

Chapter Eight – Their Stories: Complainant witnesses whose evidence was not the subject of the indictment to which Hall pleaded guilty in April 2013 or the indictment for which Hall was tried in May 2014 and are therefore untested in court (Second Term of Reference) ..............................................69

   Introduction ........................................................................................................69
   CH9 (1971) ......................................................................................................70
   CH17 (1972) .................................................................................................71
PART THREE: THE CULTURE

Chapter Nine – The culture in the 1960s, the 1970s and the 1980s .......... 81
  A. Introduction ........................................................................................... 81
  B. The changing times: 1960-1990 ........................................................... 82
     (i) Introduction ...................................................................................... 82
     (ii) The legislation ................................................................................ 84
     (iii) Young people’s attitudes to sex ...................................................... 84
     (iv) The position of women.................................................................... 87
  C. The cult of celebrity ............................................................................ 88

Chapter Ten – The culture in the BBC during the relevant period (Fourth Term of Reference) ........................................................................ 91
  A. The BBC – an overview ........................................................................ 91
     (i) Introduction ...................................................................................... 91
     (ii) Observations of long-serving BBC staff ......................................... 92
     (iii) Research on the culture of the BBC ............................................. 95
  B. The culture at the BBC in Manchester ................................................. 99
     (i) The relationship between Hall and senior Management .............. 99
     (ii) Ray Colley’s response .................................................................... 101
     (iii) The culture in the BBC Manchester television newsroom .......... 102
     (iv) ‘Blue movies’ ................................................................................ 105
     (v) The News of the World allegations about Top of the Pops in 1971 .............................................................................................. 107
PART FOUR: AWARENESS

Chapter Eleven – BBC Manchester television newsroom – Awareness of Hall’s inappropriate sexual conduct (Third Term of Reference) ........................................ 109

A. Introduction ............................................................................................................. 109
B. A typical working day ............................................................................................. 110
C. Awareness of the staff in Manchester of Hall’s sexual activities on BBC premises ......................................................................................................................... 111
   (i) Awareness of Hall’s conduct generally ............................................................... 111
   (ii) Awareness of Hall’s visitors to the BBC ............................................................ 120
   (iii) “Nieces” and elocution lessons ......................................................................... 123
   (iv) Awareness of Hall’s sexual activities in his dressing room. ............................ 124
       a) Opportunity. ...................................................................................................... 125
       b) Females procured for Hall. ............................................................................. 126
       c) Awareness – during the Piccadilly era (up to 1981) ......................................... 127
       d) Awareness – during the Oxford Road period (from 1981) ............................ 131
       e) Conversations at Oxford Road about earlier events (during the Piccadilly period) ......................................................................................................................... 132
       f) The Press suggestion of BBC facilitation by provision of a dressing room .......................................................... 133
D. The awareness of Management of Hall’s sexual activities at the BBC Manchester television newsroom ......................................................................................................................... 134
   (i) Staff perception of the awareness of Management ............................................. 134
   (ii) Ray Colley’s response ...................................................................................... 136
E. Awareness of staff and Management of Hall’s sexual activities on BBC premises other than at the BBC Manchester television newsroom ........................................ 140

Chapter Twelve – Why did Hall’s sexual activities at the BBC continue unchecked? (Fourth Term of Reference) .......................................................... 147

A. Introduction ............................................................................................................. 147
B. Absence of direct personal knowledge .................................................................. 147
C. The hypothetical question ...................................................................................... 148
   (i) Sexual conduct towards under-age girls ............................................................ 149
   (ii) Sexual conduct towards women and girls over the age of consent ................ 149
PART FIVE: Hall investigation Conclusions – The Questions Answered

A. Introduction ..................................................................................................171

B. The questions answered .................................................................................173

Question 1 (Did inappropriate sexual conduct take place?) .......................173

Question 2 (Awareness) ......................................................................................175

(i) The staff – of what, if anything, were they aware? ........................176

(ii) Were the staff aware that Hall was engaging in sexual conduct on BBC premises? ..................178

(iii) Were the staff aware that the sexual conduct was inappropriate? ..............178

(iv) The Management .................................................................................179

Question 3 (What, if anything, was done about Hall’s inappropriate sexual conduct at the time?) .......................184

Question 4 (If little or nothing was done about Hall’s inappropriate sexual conduct, why was this?) ..................184

C. Conclusion ........................................................................................................188

APPENDICES

Appendix 1 Review Procedures (paragraph 1.16) .......................................195

Appendix 2 Press release, 4 June 2013 (paragraph 1.22) ..........................201

Appendix 3 Informal plans of Broadcasting House, Piccadilly (paragraph 5.2) .................................................................203

Appendix 4 Plans of New Broadcasting House, Oxford Road (1993) (paragraph 5.8) .................................................................209

Appendix 5 Diagram produced by Dr Peter Scott-Morgan (paragraph 10.14) .........................................................................................211

Appendix 6 Detailed Information and Charts Relating to the Complainant Witnesses ........................................................................213